

Profile

Dr Vanishree Koppad

Mobile No: 9448910653

Email: vanishreebubedu@gmail.com

Dr. Vanishree Koppad, M.Sc (Botany), M.Ed, Ph.D., NET (UGC), KES, PGCCEP, is an accomplished academic and educator. Currently an Assistant Professor and Coordinator in the Department of Education, she has a rich career history. Dr. Koppad has previously served as Headmistress at GHS Kinnikambla, Mangalore, and worked as a Lecturer at the District Institute of Education and Training, Bangalore Urban. She has also been a Master Resource Person for several induction and refresher courses for in-service secondary school teachers, headmasters and DIET lecturers. MRP for leadership, administration, and management training for secondary school teachers and headmasters. She has organized several E-Vidya training programme for different cadre officers of department of public instruction.

Dr. Vanishree Koppad has completed web-based induction programs for elementary teacher educators conducted by DSERT and completed MRP training in Technology Assisted Learning Programme organised by DSERT-Karnataka in collaboration with the Central Institute of Educational Technology, NCERT, New Delhi. She has organized and coordinated numerous training programs, workshops, and exhibitions at both district and state levels. With a significant number of research articles published in esteemed national and international journals, she has guided numerous M.Ed. dissertation students and research scholars.

A dedicated academic, Dr. Vanishree Koppad has attended and presented papers at a multitude of state, national, and international seminars, conferences, and workshops. She is a lifetime member of the Indian Science Congress Association and the Council for Teacher Education Foundation (CTEF) Karnataka Chapter. Additionally, she has completed PGCCEP in Science Education and serves as a member of the Board of Studies (BOS) and the Board of Examiners (BOE) at Bangalore University and other universities.