Proceedings of the PG BOS in English (by circulation), approved on 24.7.2014

The PG Board of Studies, Department of English approved of the PG syllabus document (conceived to suit the CBCS Scheme) which will come into effect from August 2014. Details of Course Patterns and Schemes of Examinations pertaining to the PG syllabus are a part of the ensuing document. Through a series of consultations and informal meetings over the institution of the new scheme, the PG BOS of English has arrived at the structure to be adopted for the 4-semester M.A. English Course. The overall syllabus structure, the syllabus details of each paper with the relevant Question Paper pattern, and the Internal Assessment break-up are shown in the attached document. Each unit has been fixed in consultation with the BOS members (internal and external), and has been endorsed by the external members, Prof.Kishori Nayak (Mangalore University) and Prof.Ravichandra (Mysore University). Panels of 3 Ph.D. candidates (Ms.Khalida Anjum, (Supervisor: Dr.Geetha Bhasker), ~~Mr.~~ Mr. Mahmoud Saberi, (Supervisor: Dr.K.S.Vaishali) and Ms.Shalin Varghese, (Supervisor: Dr.Chitra Panikkar) were approved by the BOS members by circulation. A large portion of the syllabus-document is part of the relatively new and updated syllabus which was instituted in 2010-'11. The new units that have come into being now are the Open Elective Papers and the Soft Core Papers . The BOS resolved that the III Semester Open Elective Courses, "Write it Right" and "Popular Literature" would be offered alternately; the Board also decided to offer the Soft Core Papers, "American Literature" and "World Literatures in English" alternately. It was also proposed that the Open Elective intake could be limited to 70.
